

1. Authors

Anne Jarrigeon

Anthropologue

Anne Jarrigeon is a photographer-videographer and anthropologist who holds a PhD in communication sciences. She is a member of the City Mobility Transport Laboratory and lecturer at the Paris School of Urban Planning. Her work is at the crossroads of visual anthropology, semiotics and ethnology, and focuses on the practices and imaginaries of mobility.

Publications with the Forum

Being a woman in the city, or the art of avoidance

Video by Anne Jarrigeon

The weight of daily life: women facing mobility

Video by Anne Jarrigeon

The mobility of women: a constrained freedom

Video by Anne Jarrigeon