Bertrand Sergot

Chercheur en sciences de gestion

Bertrand Sergot is a university lecturer in Management Science in the RITM laboratory of the Université Paris-Sud. He is also co-director of the permanent thematic group Stratégies, Espaces et Territoires of the AIMS. His work focuses on delocalisation, on the regulation of human and non-human mobilities by corporate leaders, and more widely on organisational actors' modes of inscription in geographical space, at the level of both materials and ideas.
